Dear Jan:

Though you and I have not yet discussed this particular set of documents, relative to the above-referenced matter enclosed please find:

- Filing Receipt ("Receipt");
- Declaration and Power of Attorney ("DPOA"); and
- Assignment.

The Receipt is for your information and files. However, you should complete, sign and return to me in the enclosed envelope the originals of each of the DPOA and the Assignment, keeping copies of each for your records. Note that the Assignment must be signed in the presence of a Notary Public.

Finally, and as always, it is incumbent upon CCI to remind you of your ongoing duty to disclose to the U.S. Patent & Trademark Office any publications or materials of which you are aware that may be material to the patentability of the invention at issue. If you know of any such publications or materials having bearing on the invention, you should bring them to our attention.
